

CALENDAR

and Michele Kessler in Palm Beach at 6 p.m. For more information, visit whitehousehistory.org.

18

ALEXIS DE TOCQUEVILLE
 The Town of Palm Beach United Way will hold its Alexis de Tocqueville Society Annual Recognition Dinner at Club Colette in Palm Beach. For more information, call 561.655.1919.

20

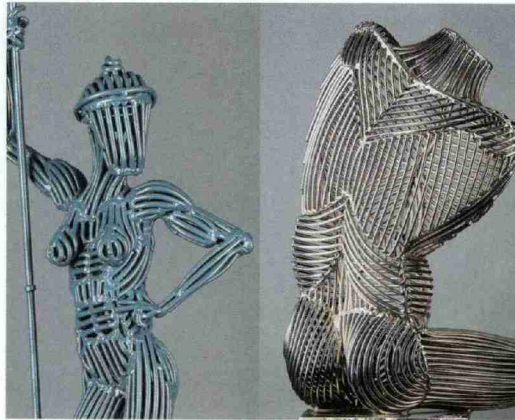

SPRING BLOSSOM
 More than 1 million visitors will travel to Washington, D.C., through April 13, for the National Cherry Blossom Festival. The event commemorates the 1912 gift of 3,000 cherry trees from Mayor Yukio Ozaki of Tokyo to the city of Washington, and celebrates the enduring friendship between the people of the United States and Japan. Visitors will enjoy diverse and creative programming, natural beauty, and community spirit. For more information about the event and its history, visit nationalcherryblossomfestival.org.

21

PALM BEACH POLICE
 The Palm Beach Police Foundation will host its Annual Council of 100 Spring Dinner at the Flagler Museum. For more information, visit palmbeachpolicefoundation.org.

23

WHITE HOT NIGHT
 Hôpital Albert Schweitzer will hold its White Hot Night Haiti Gala at the Sailfish Club in Palm Beach at 7 p.m. The organization works to collaborate with the people of the Artibonite Valley as they strive to improve their health. For more information, call 561.702.7471.

On March 28, LIC Arts Open Gallery at The Factory in Long Island City will host a reception to preview Jack Howard-Potter's new exhibition, "Bringing Steel to Life." For more information, visit licartsopen.com.

25

PARTY UNDER PALMS
 Rainbow Babies and Children's Hospital: Palm Beach Circle of Friends will host its 10th Annual Party Under the Palms event at Club Colette. For more information, visit uhgiving.org.

28

POLO TRAINING
 The Polo Training Foundation will hold a Sip and Shop at J.McLaughlin's Worth Avenue boutique in Palm Beach at 2 p.m. The proceeds are dedicated to supporting polo in sports curriculums, promoting international goodwill through competition, and encouraging sportsmanship. For more information, visit polotraining.org.

BRINGING STEEL TO LIFE

LIC Arts Open Gallery at The Factory in Long Island City will host a reception at 5 p.m. to preview Jack Howard-Potter's exhibition of sculpture, "Bringing Steel to Life," which will remain open through April 26. For more information, visit licartsopen.com.

29

FOOD AND FASHION
 The Daughters of the American Revolution's Palm Beach Chapter will hold a luncheon at The Beach Club at 11:30 a.m. The organization is dedicated to promoting historic preservation. For more information, visit dar.org.

APRIL

1

EVENING OF TRIBUTE
 The Fourth Biennial Palm Beach "Evening of Tribute" will take place at Mar-a-Lago at 5:45 p.m. to raise funds for the Navy SEAL Foundation and Navy SEAL Museum. The patriotic evening will include a cocktail reception, seated dinner, keynote speakers, and entertainment. For more information and to purchase tickets, visit navysealfoundation.org.

3

LUNCH AND A CHAT
 The Women's Board of the Boys' Club of New York invites you to a conversation with Howard Schultz, former Starbucks chairman and CEO, who will be interviewed by Diane Sawyer. The event will take place at 583 Park Avenue at 11:30 a.m. For more information, visit bcny.org.

FASHION SUSTAINABILITY

The Fashion Institute of Technology (FIT) will celebrate innovation in sustainability with the 2019 Sustainable Business and Design Conference and Annual Awards Gala. The conference will be held at FIT on Wednesday and Thursday, April 3 and 4; the pinnacle Annual Awards Gala will be held on the evening of Wednesday, April 3, at the American Museum of Natural History. This is the first year FIT will bring these two signature events together. For more information, visit fitnyc.edu.

On March 12, the Society of Memorial Sloan Kettering will host its Annual Bunny Hop at 583 Park Avenue at 5 p.m. Bonpoint is the generous sponsor of the event for the fourth consecutive year. For more information, visit society.mskcc.org.

