Upcoming

■ AARP Driver Safety Course. 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. Friday. $20 members, $25 community for ages 60+. Marcus Jewish Community Center of Atlanta - Zaban Park, 5342 Tilly Mill Road, Dunwoody. This five-hour course is designed to teach the effects of aging on driving. Earl Finley at 678-812-4070 or earl.finley@AtlantaJCC.org. Register: AtlantaJCC.org/AARP

■ Matzah Mania: Passover Party, Shopping and Family Celebration. 1-5 p.m. Sunday. Free. Kroger Orchard Park, 2090 Dunwoody Club Drive, Dunwoody. Enjoy an afternoon of songs, crafts and activities as the holiday of Passover is celebrated. Children may visit craft stations, participate in activities and learn about Passover. Adults will be treated to guided Passover shopping tours with ASK rabbis and tastings. People of all faiths and backgrounds are welcome. Rabbi Brian Glusman at 678-812-4161 or rabbi.glusman@AtlantaJCC.org. Register: AtlantaJCC.org/MatzahMania

■ Job Fair. 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. April 18. Beulah Community Life Center, 2340 Clifton Springs Road, Decatur. Sponsors are the Georgia Department of Labor, Beulah Missionary Baptist Church, Beulah Business Network and DeKalb County. Job seekers interested in attending the event are advised to visit EmployGeorgia.com to create an account for the preparation and submittal of a résumé and to speed up the interview process. Applicants are encouraged to bring their résumés and driver’s licenses and dress business casual to improve their chances of being hired. Learn more about career opportunities at dol.georgia.gov.