Upcoming

■ MJCCA Food Truck Thursday. 5-8:30 p.m. Thursday. Free. Brook Run Park, 4770 N. Peachtree Road, Dunwoody. Celebrate Lag Ba’Omer with choral performances by The Weber School Chorus and The Davis Academy Magical Melodies, local teen bands, craft stations, children’s activities and prizes. Kosher vendors will include Keith’s Corner BBQ, A Kosher Touch and Cotton Cravings. Rabbi Brian Glusman at 678-812-4161 or Rabbi.Glusman@AtlantaJCC.org. Register: AtlantaJCC.org/FoodTruck

■ “Ain’t Misbehavin’.” Opens Friday through June 16. Varied times and days. $15 to $33. Stage Door Players at North DeKalb Cultural Center, 5339 Chamblee Dunwoody Road, Dunwoody. The music and lyrics of Thomas “Fats” Waller are featured in this musical revue. StageDoorPlayers.net

■ The Secret Gardens of Avondale Tour. 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. June 1. $15 before the tour, $20 the day of the tour, free for children under age 12. The Avondale Estates Garden Club is hosting this tour for the first time in almost a decade. Plein-air artists will work in the six featured gardens that range from well-established to emerging landscapes. Strollers and pets are not permitted on the tour. Before the tour, tickets are available at these businesses in Avondale Estates—Avondale City Hall, Edwin Jarvis, Finders Keepers Home Consignment, Garage Door Studios and Ronald Sachs Violins; in Decatur—Intown Ace Hardware, The Great Frame Up, Lee Cobb Hair Design, Opus Music and Vivid Boutique; and in Oakhurst—One Step at a Time Shoes. Day of ticket purchases will be available at the Pavilion in Willis Park next to the Avondale Estates pool. Tour Committee Chairman Nancy Martin at iljrd@yahoo.com