Lieberman on board

The County Commissioners Association of Ohio (CCAO) announced that Montgomery County Commissioner Debbie Lieberman has been selected to serve on the 2020 CCAO board of directors.

“CCAO has worked to improve the state-county relationship and we have seen measured success in the past year, including increased funding from the Local Government Fund and support for our local public defender’s office. These efforts improve the quality of life for our citizens, and I’m honored to join the board of directors to continue this important work,” Lieberman said. “Through CCAO, all of Ohio’s 88 counties can work together to advocate for efficient and effective government, and to exchange best practices that benefit taxpayers.”

Lieberman, who was first elected as County Commissioner in 2004, is a past president of the CCAO Board of Directors. Through CCAO, Lieberman has advocated for additional state funding for indigent defense, support for infrastructure projects, resources to tackle the opioid crisis, and support for projects to enhance early childhood education and improve outcomes for returning citizens.

The County Commissioners Association of Ohio advances effective county government for Ohio through legislative advocacy, education and training, technical assistance and research, quality enterprise service programs, and greater citizen awareness and understanding of county government.
