

Cultural Council elects new officers

The Hopkinton Cultural Council, at its June 18 online meeting, unanimously elected a new slate of officers.

Iana Cassady is the new chair, Jonathan Meltzer is treasurer, Laura Stacey is secretary and Hopkinton Public Schools liaison, Darlene Hayes is the public relations coordinator, Christine Enos is the membership coordinator and Rick Jacobs is the grantee reception coordinator.

“I’ve had a good time being the chair these past three years,” former chair Sterling Worrell said. “Thank you for all your help.”

The Hopkinton Cultural Council is part of a network of 329 local Cultural Councils (LCC) serving all 351 cities and towns in the Commonwealth. The LCC program is the largest grassroots cultural funding network in the nation, supporting thousands of community-based projects in the arts, sciences and humanities every year. The state legislature provides and annual appropriation to the Massachusetts Cultural Council (MCC), a state agency, which then allocates funds to each community.

